

SUNDAY AT 12 O'CLOCK

Live streamed concerts during the corona shutdown in Oslo

During the corona-shutdown, Oslo Circles spontaneously started a new little concert series at Sundays 12 o'clock. There we have played and live streamed mini-concerts from various venues in Oslo: Akershus slottskirke in Oslo, Linderud Gård and Oslo Ladegård.

We have played with few musicians, keeping extra distance according to the current coronavirus regulations. From 7th May, the Norwegian government allowed small gatherings of people, up to 50 at a time. So from that date we were possible to sell some few tickets to our streamed concerts, too.
